RUSSIAN TROOPS REACH POSEN

Great Mass of Muscovites Press Behind Retreating Germans.

CROSS THE WARTHE.

Invaders Now in One of the Richest Districts in the German Empire—Marching to Berlin.

Petrograd, Nov. 9—Russian troops are now in Posen province. Advancingwith speed which has called forth the highest praise from the Czar and the general staff, the great mass of the Russian army has pressed behind the retreating Germans. Unofficial reports today declared an advance guard has crossed the river Warthe and now holds Pleschen, sixty two miles northeast of Breslau and ten miles inside the German frontier. For the first time the Russians are in the province of Posen, one of the richest districts in the German empire.

Two drives are now being made by the Russians toward Berlin. The advance in East Prussia continues to meet with success, the Russian forces steadily pressing forward. The Russian front is now nearly ten miles within East Prussia. The enemy has been driven from Wirballen and the territory from Wirballen to Lyck cleared of the Kaiser's troops.

The capture of Carcow is now regarded as a certainty in Petrograd The advance of the Russians to the south in Galicia and southwest Poland has been pressed with unrelenting vigor An advance guard is reported to have reached the river Niszica thirty-five miles from Cracow. The movement has cut off the Austrian armies operating south of Przemysl and along the river San, With the German corps supporting the Austrian forces, this army is estimated at about 600,000.

Berlin (via Amsterdam), Nov. 9—The retirement of the German forces behind the Warthe river is admitted in an official statement from the war office today.

Reports declare that many of the great estates in Posen province are being deserted. The border inhabitants are leaving for the interior.

Reports of some excitment in Vienna, following rumors of general Russian Victories have reached here.

READY TO CRUSH RUSSIANS

Germany and Austria Awaits Invasion With 3,000,000 Soldiers.

Copenhagen, Nov 9—It is asserted in Berlin that Germany and Austria-Hungary now have concentrated about 3,000,000 soldiers on the line from Thorn to Cracow, and this is considered sufficient to crush the Russian forces.

Military authorities declare that the result of the coming battle is not in doubt, and that the Russian army will be completely destroyed. They explain that it is necessary to allow the Russians to advance to the frontier to prevent them from making a good retreat after their defeat. The present retirement of the Germans is necessary they say, to have the railways immediately behind the army for the approaching main battle.

NEWS OF THE DAY

Fire of unknown origin last night destroyed property on the water front of Crisfield, Md., valued at $100,000.

The little German cruiser Geier, which has been repairing at Honolulu while a Japanese squadron waited outside the harbor for her to reappear on the high seas, interned for the war at Honolulu Saturday night, the time set by the American government for her to intern or leave port.

The burgomaster of Flushing announces that all boats except mail boats and recognized harbor craft found in the River Schedlt will be fired on by the Dutch forts. The appearance of strange vessels near Flushing made this regulation necessary. The Dutch intend that the Germans shall have no opportunity of using Antwerp as a naval base.

"The Illionis law which requires that men and women voters tell their ages when registering, is making liars of us all'" said Mrs. Harriet Taylor Treadwell, suffragette leader who is active in a propaganda looking to the repeal of the offending statute. It is quite enough, said Mrs. Treadwell, to know that the man or woman registering is more than 21 years of age. Many women object to telling their ages. Under the present law thousands of women voters will not try to exercise their suffrage rights. Repeal this law and observe how quickly registration by women will increase."

Information from Berlin, says the crown prince is being blamed for the failure of the German advance in France. The people put their trust in him to reach Paris within scheduled time and now he is being openly attacked for failing to penetrate the French right. An enormous number of slightly wounded men and boys limp about the streets, drive in open motors and are seen in restaurants and theaters. They are so numerous that they seem to be part of a gigantic street campaign to advertise the army. Every man seems to be decorated with an iron cross. The number of iron crosses distributed is now approaching 100,000.

Ten aeroplanes, four German and six French, engaged in an air battle over Rheims on Thursday. The engagement ended in a French victory. For half an hour the aeroplanes maneuvered 2,000 feet above the city exchanging volleys. The artillery on both sides suspended fire while the city watched the thrilling battle. Finally the German machines, outnumbered, but speedier than the French, fled, their planes riddled with shot. One of them dropped when it reached its own lines and the pilot was killed.

Wishing to elope in romantic fashion, Evelyn Ashford, aged fifteen of Cincinnati, and Frank Nolan, aged eighteen, also of Cincinnati, climbed aboard the, blind baggage of Big Four passenger train No. 43 at Cincinnati and were taken in custody by the police of Lafayette. The boy and girl were half frozen. The girl was dressed in boy's clothing, having donned a suit belonging to her companion.

As a result of the overturning of a powerful automobile several miles south of Milwaukee early yesterday, Lloyd T. Boyd, part owner of the Milwaukee Journal, and Charles Forsythe, head of a Milwaukee leather company, were instantly killed, and Mrs. Alice Murray, fatally injured, died yesterday afternoon. Miss Elysian A. Thomas, superintendent of an East Side Hospital, was seriously injured.

CRASH FATAL TO YOUTH.

Almost Instantly Killed When Motorcycle Speeds Around Sharp Curve.

Philadelphia, Nov. 9.—Catapulted from his seat when his motorcycle, with a side car attachment, rushed at break neck speed into the rear of an automobile, Horace Goble, 19 years old, of Narberth, had his skull fractured and died almost instantly Friday night. The accident took place on the Wynnefield road, near the very highest point of George's Hill, in Fairmount Park.

PARLIAMENT IS IN "WAR SESSION"

Present System of Censorship Not Satisfactory to British.

TO STIR PATRIOTISM.

England Realizes She Has Been Subjected to Great Humilitation by Disasters to Her Navy.

London, Nov. 9.—With parliament convening on Wednesday for its second "war session," great interest is being manifested in the attitude the opposition may take toward the government, especially in relation to the affairs of the admiralty.

There is also the question of the plans adopted by the war office for raising the army for service in France and Belgium, as well as the system of censorship which permits the public to know but little of what is transpiring in the field. The wisdom of the withholding of any information which might by any chance be of value to the enemy is recognized, but the comparatively slight response to the appeals for recruits is attributed to the fact that nothing is evident in England to arouse the patriotic fervor of her fighting men.

Members of the opposition feel despite the fact that vessels sunk in the North Sea by the German submarine raids were of little real value, that England has been humilitated by the heavy toll.

The defeat of Admiral Cradock's squadron off the Chilean coast came as a climax to the growing sentiment for a demand that the admiralty assume some offensive to offset these victories of the Germans.

It is officially denied that Yarmouth was bombarded by German cruisers last week, but admitted that these vessels did approach extremely close to the coast city.

SON'S SHOT KILLS MOTHER

Claps Revolvers Together and Impact Sends Bullet to Heart.

Hazelton, Pa., Nov. 9—Albert Filbert, a 17 year old boy accidentally shot and almost instantly killed his mother, Mrs William Filbert of this city yesterday as she was making a bed in a room where he had found two loaded revolvers.

Clapping them together he discharged one, the bullet entering Mrs. Filbert's heart. "I'm shot," she screamed, and fell over. Filbert, almost wild with grief, was freed under $1,500 bail.

SHOOTS BENEFACTOR

Jersey Farmer Gives Boy a Ride and is Repaid With Bullet.

Egg Harbor, N. J., Nov. 9—George Filling a well-to-do farmer of Pomona is in the Atlantic City Hospital in a critical condition as the result of a bullet wound in the head, inflicted by a boy to whom he had given a ride. Falling was returning home after selling a load of produce in Atlantic City when he overtaken two boys, who asked him to let them ride with him. After they had proceeded some distance one of the boys drew a revolver and shot Filling back of the ear, the bullet going clear through his head and coming out over the eye. Robbery apparently was the motive, but as an automobile approached immediately after the shooting the boys took to their heels.

Two brothers named Hand were later arrested and locked up. It is said that the revolver with which the shooting was done was found on one of them.

GIRL'S BODY FOUND.

Mysterious Death of Young Woman of Maine.

Presque Isle Me., Nov. 9.—The body of Mildred Sullivan, of Houlton, who disappeared early in September and for whose alleged murder Dr. Lionel E. Dudley, of this town, was arrested was found about a mile from Presque Isle after two days' systematic search. The authorities immediately took into custody Perley Pelletier and his sister Alice as accessories. The Sullivan girl is alleged to have been at the Pelletier home here shortly before her disappearance.

Dr. Dudley was first taken into custody in connection with the case last September when he was held in Boston on a charge of performing an illegal operation and was brought back to this county. At that time Alice Pelletier and Kate Michaud of Wallagrass' were held as accessories. They were released on bail.

Information which the county officials received Saturday caused the new arrest of Dr. Dudley on the murder charge.

This information led also to the search of a particular section of woods for the body, which was found buried without even a box for a coffin. According to the officials, a statement by the Michaud girl led to the finding of the body.

Miss Sullivan was 17 years old and of attractive appearance. She was last seen alive early in September, when she came here from her home in Houlton.

SNAKE IN BED.

Dreams of Reptiles And Awakes to Find One.

Macon, Mo., Nov. 9.—Mrs. Ralph Talbot of Ten Mile township was in the bed with her baby and her husband sleeping in an adjoining room when she dreamed of snakes, and the dream was so disturbing that she awoke. The lamp on the table threw a dim ray on the bed and lying near her and the baby on the cover was just such a reptile as she had seen in her dreams. But she was a nervy little woman, and, assuring herself that it was only a dream, she reached over and touched the ugly thing. It moved! So did she; but she didn't cry out, and she had the presence of mind to seize the baby and take it with her.

Mr. Talbot awoke and heard the story. He walked into his wife's bed room and turned up the light. There was no snake to be seen.

"It must have been a dream," he said.

"Maybe," admitterd Mrs. Tabot "but I felt sure it moved when I touched it."

Something was said about eating certain heavy food before retiring when Mr. Talbot detected a slight movement of the cover. He pulled it off the bed and there lay a snake.

MEAT HIGHER THIS WEEK

Another Unjustified Increase Predicted In New York.

The quarantine against cattle made necessary by the rapid spread of foot-and-mouth disease in 10 states has alraedy forced the prices of meat up in this city, and it is predicted today that a further and greater increase will be made this week unless the scourge is checked and the quarantine lifted.

All meats have advanced three and four cents a pound retail but the most marked increase was noted in the price of beef, lamb and mutton The prices which hogs and calves have been recently bringing did not show a great change.

One retail dealer with several shops in the city declared that the sharp advance of three and four cents in the price of meats was unwarranted.

NAVAL MOVEMENTS IN THE PACIFIC

Engagement Imminent Between Anglo-Japanese and German Ships

SEARCH FOR TEUTONS.

Activity of Mikado's Vessels—London Hopes to Hear of Elimination of German Influence.

London, Nov. 9.—Principal interest in the naval war has shifted to the Pacific ocean, where news of a battle between the Anglo-Japanese and German fleets is expected at auy moment. The British admiralty and all military experts and the foreign embassies are waiting impatiently for the word that will tell of perhaps the greatest naval engagement of the war, an engagement which London hopes will sink or silence all German influence in the Pacific.

Even before the fall of Tsingtau the British and Japanese are known to have dispatched several of their fastest war ships across the Pacific in search for the Germans.

The small German cruiser Geier was interned at Honolulu on Saturday night, thus releasing the Japanese armored cruiser Hizen and a sister cruiser, which were waiting outside the three mile limit. It is possible they have started southeasterly to join in the pursuit of Admiral Graf von Spee German squadron, which defeated Rear Admiral Sir Christopher Craddock squadron off the Chilian coast last Sunday evening.

A squadron of eight Japanese warships was at Easter Island, 230 miles west of the Chilian coast, two weeks ago and it is believed to be closing in upon Admiral von Spee squadron.

Two powerful Japanese battleships escorted the Japanese freight steam ship Azumasan Maru across the Pacific, leaving her off the California coast. The steamship proceeded into San Francisco, arriving there on Saturday, and the battle ships tured south.

NIGHT RIDERS KILLED.

Two Women of Kentucky Are Severely Whipped.

Lexington, Ky., Nov. 9.—Night riders have again become active in Butler county, according to dispatches received last night, and as a result of their attacks upon two women and young men in a remote part of that county two riders and probably a third are reported to have been killed. None of those attacked was injured. Every effort has been made to hush up the affair, and names are withheld.

The story, as it reaches here, is that a woman had whipped her young daughter in law. This drew forth a threat from the "riders" that they would whip the entire family. A young man of the household appealed to neighbors for help, and several responded, arming themselves and taking up their stand in woods near a roadway by which the "riders" had to come.

Soon the "riders" appeared about 100 strong and the defenders opened fire.

Two of the "riders'" were seen to fall and a third is said to have been supported away. It is since reported that three men were killed.

The "riders" so outnumbered the defenders that the latter were finally forced to retreat, and the "riders" went to the house, where they overpowered and badly whipped the two women. The situation is so serious that troops may be asked for.

FREE TO SHOOT RIVAL

Woman Who Wounded Woman Who Attracted Husband Acquitted.

New York, Nov. 9—"There was a very great provocation for this act It is fortunate for you that you did no more damage. I am satisfied that you did it on account of a condition of mind induced by a long series of abuses. You were more sinned against than sinning. Sentence suspended."

Thus did Judge Wadhams in General Sessions pass on Friday on the case of Augusta Rogers, accused of shooting a younger and prettier woman, believed by her to be her rival for the affections of the man whom for eight years she had called husband. Mrs. Rogers pleaded guilty of carrying the pistol with which the shooting was done.

VIRGINIA A. C WINS AGAIN

Exciting Game of Football Played Saturday Afternoon.

By defeating the M. A. C. Reserve football team in one of the most exciting games seen at the local ball park in a number of years, the V. A. C. won by the score of 20 to 6.

From the first whistle blown by Referee Douglas to the last, the game was full of exciting plays which held the spectators on their toes at all times. The visiting team though much heavier than the local boys were outplayed at every point on the open style of football, but the locals were outpointed at the old style of the game plunging through the line The M. A. C. back field made many long gains charging the Va line but were unable to make any gains around the ends which they tried but only few times. The line charges of the visitors soon told on the Va's line and it was necessary to make shifts in the line now and then The Va's team played the open style of football throughout the game making several long runs around the opponents ends with splendi dinterence Forward passes were used successfully on several occasions by the local boys with good gains.

The game though hard fought from beginning to end was marred by only one accident which occurred to Raison the plucky Va's half back while making a long gain around M. A. C. end twisted his ankle and had to be taken out of the game.

The management has just received word from the P. R. R. Apprentice of Harrisburg, Pa., that game for next Saturday has been canceled on account of injuries which several of these star players have received. There will be a game at the ball park either next Saturday or Monday.

ISSUE OF PEACE OR WAR IN MEXICO

Will, it is said, Be Decided Within Next Twenty four Hours.

REPORTS CONFLICT.

Secretary of State Bryan Returns to Washington to Take Personal Charge of the Procedures.

Washington, Nov. 9.—The issue of peace or war in Mexico will be decided within the next twenty-four hours. This was the judgment today of high officials, who insisted, however, that the maze of conflicting reports and wild rumors coming out of Mexico cause much difficulty in following the real course of events.

Secretary of State Bryan returned today from political campaigning to take personal charge of procedure in Mexico.

Reassuring advices from General Funston, at Vera Cruz and from various agents of the State Department gave officials hope for peaceful retirement of Carranza.

By Tuesday, it is understood, Carranza will decide whether he will accept the decree of the Aguas Calientes convention naming General Gutierrez as provisional president.

Officials indicated today that further negotiations with Carranza regarding evacuation of Vera Cruz would not be pursued until further levelopments ensued which may place a successor in charge of the Mexican government. At most many officials now believe, the chief danger to Americans at Vera Cruz is from possible sporadic attacks.

Conflict between the committee sent by the Aguas Calientas convention to confer with Carranza and the convention itself has appeared, according to advices reaching here. The committee is said to have reported to the convention that peace would be brought closer if Vila should give up his military connections. This was practicaly the demand of Carranza, which the convention had previously ignored.

With the administration satisfied with the latest reports, it was stated on high authority today that the reports of alarming situations at Vera Cruz and at Mexico City are unfounded. The latest report said that Carranza is not planning an attack against the American forces at the Mexican port.

QUICK RELIEF FROM CONSTIPATION

Get Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

That is the joyful cry of thousands since Dr. Edwards produced Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel.

Dr. Edwards, a practicing physician for 17 years and calomel's old-time enemy, discovered the formula for Olive Tablets while treating patients for chronic constipation and torpid livers.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets do not contain calomel, but a healing, soothing vegetable laxative.

No griping is the "keynote" of these little sugar-coated, olive-colored tablets. They cause the bowels and liver to act normally. They never force them to unnatural action

If you have a "dark brown mouth" now and then—a bad breath—a dull, tired feeling—sick headache—torpid liver and are constipated, you'll find quick, sure and only pleasant results from one or two little Dr Edwards' Olive Tablets at bedtime.

Thousands take one or two every night just to keep right. Try them. 10c and 25c per box. All druggists.

BISHOP AT OLD POHICK

First Visitation to Fairfax Churches Since His Recent Ordination in Richmond.

Yesterday was a red letter day in the history of Old Pohick and Olivet Episcopal Churches, Fairfax county, for it brought with it the first visitation of Coadjutor Bishop Brown to these churches. Bishop Brown, accompanied by the Rev. Dr. S. A. Wallis, of the Theological Seminary, drove down from the Seminary and reached historic Old Pohick Church in good time for the service. A large congregation had assembled to greet Bishop Brown.

Five persons were confirmed by him, one of these being baptised immediately beforehand by Dr. Wallis who also baptised two children at the same time. Bishop Brown preached a sermon most appropriate to the occasion which was delivered in well chosen language fluently and without a single note.

The service was held at Olivet Church in the afternoon, the church being filled to its utmost capacity. Bishop Brown baptised an infant and confirmed two persons. At night he preached and confirmed two persons at Sharon Chapel, one of the Seminary Missions and confirmed two persons, this making nine persons confirmed in all at the three services.

Bishop Brown made a splendid impression He asked in each case that the announcement be made that he desired to meet everyone at each service individually. His warm hearted greeting of each one and his deep interest in the work of these churches attracted the people to him at once, and it was abundantly evident that the Episcopal diocese of Virginia has chosen the right man to help Bishop Gibson in the great work of the diocese, especially in the important country parishes.

EXIT INDIAN SUMMER.

Mild Weather of Yesterday Gives Place to More Seasonable Conditions.

The weather yesterday was mild with a southerly breeze. Many persons were on the streets and practically all the automobiles of Alexandria and many from other places were whisking through the city and on the suburbs. The river was dotted with motorboats and they were passing up and down until after sunset.

There was a sudden change in meteorological conditions, however early in the night, when the sky become overcast and the wind suddenly veered to the northwest. It blew "great guns" for a time and was accompanied by rain. The streets were soon practically deserted as the temperature began to fall. Some hail fell during the tempest and in Baltimore and other places north of Alexandria there were snow flurries.

Thunder was also heard.

Before midnight the heavens became clear and the weather colder. Today the temperature has been crisp and fires and overcoats have been in evidence.

WASHINGTON, D. C.

There is no other place in Washington or vicinity where these distinctive and elegant things may be obtained, because they are limited to us for distribution.

Just two years ago we brought to Washington our first importations and selections of Liberty things, and they were received with such enthusiasm and approval that we have had to greatly increase our assortments—in fact, they are more than double the original quantities.

Every article bears the distinguishing mark of Liberty originality—whether it be the pattern and coloring of the soft silken fabrics, a dainty perfume jar a beautiful garment, an odd toy or an exquisite piece of pottery there is nothing that can equal or approach them.

FOR SALE

THE HELLESPONT AGAIN IN WAR ZONE.

If the shades of Darius and Xerxes are hovering around the Aegean Sea at present they will see a remarkable improvement on the slings, bows and arrows and spears with which they conducted warfare in the far away part. Leander was compeled to swim the Hellespont in order to meet Hero, where he alive today he could fly over that historic stream and the beautiful girl would not have been horrified to see his body washed ashore by the waves.

Had the Greeks possessed one of the small cruisers of our day Darius and his hordes would have been swept away in a hurry while crossing the improvised bridge in order to get into Greece, and a few guns would have eliminated Xerxes.

Dispatches from the Levant tell us the ancient city of Smyrna has been bombarded by British ships and that the Greek inhabitants are panic-stricken and fleeing.

There is much interesting history connected with this ancient city. For many years it has remained as the only one of the Seven Churches of Asia to which letters were dictated by the Author of the Christian religion to John on the Isle which is called Patmos. Ephesus, Thyatira Pergamos Sardis, Philadelphia and Laodicea having long since been devoured by the tooth of time. It was at Smyrna where Polycarp became a martyr to his faith.

Mark Twain in his "Innocents

Mark Twain in his "Innocents

Abroad" gives an interesting description of his visit to this city of Asia Minor, so rich in history and traditions of the long ago. In the fearful clash of arms now going on there nothing is regarded as sacred. Battles will doubtless soon be fought on the site of ancient Troy and of a far more sanguinary and remarkable nature than that described by the blind poet.

LATE ISAAC EICHBERG.

Funeral Takes Place Today From Residence on North Washington Street.

Funeral services for Isaac Eichberg, one of Alexandria's most prominent citizens, took place this afternoon from his residence at 114 north Washington street. There were present a large number of friends of the deceased and the floral offerings were unusually beautiful. The services were conducted by the Rev. Dr. A. Simon, of Washington.

The pall bearers were Justus Schneider, Douglass Stuart, John G Cockey, B. Weil, of this city, J. M. Laucheimer, of Baltimore, and Samuel Schwarz, of Washington.

FREE TRIP TO EXPOSITION

Popular Washington Clothing Firm Opens Contest.

The Kaufman Clothing Co, of Washington in their Free trip contest has made this possible for any man who will take a few minutes each day to explain to his friends, his intentions.

The contest is a voting contest, in which each purchase of ten cents is counted as one vote; for example a purchase of a twenty-five dollars suit would entitle the contestant to 250 votes.

Each contestant instructs his friends when making purchases of the Kaufman Clothing Co., to write his name across the purchase slip, which is then dropped in a sealed case to remain there until May 1915, when the case will be opened and votes counted before a selected committee of four men. The contestant having the greater number of votes will be presented with a check for $300 and a Hart Schaffner and Marx suit that sells for $25.

The contest is open to any man who may care to enter and now is the time to enter. With such a fine line of clothing as Hart Schaffner and Marx, any man can conscientiously recommend them to his friends, and by spending a few minutes each day telling his friends of the merit of this fine line of clothing and of his desire to win this fine prize, will find his efforts well prepaid.

Don't hesitate, enter the contest now with a little work the prize of $300 and a $25 Hart Schaffner and Marx fine suit will be yours.

MEMORIAL SERVICES.

Order Fraternal Americans Conduct Interesting Services Yesterday.

Memorial services for six members of the order who have died during the present year was held yesterday afternoon by Alexandria Council, No. 5, Order of Fraternal Americans, in Sarepta Hall. In addition to the members of the order there were a large number of invited guests. The hall was appropriately decorated.

The principal address of the services was made by the Hon. James R. Caton, former member of the state legislature. The names of the deceased members of the lodge was read by Fred W. Ebhardt, past president.

IRISHMEN ARE FIGHTING

Brigade From Emerald Isle Not Backward In Offering Its Services

Dublin, Nov. 9—John Redmond's request for the official recognition of an Irish Brigade has been met. The Nationalist leader shortly before the prorogation of Parliment declared that his country had a right to claim that Irish recruits for the Expeditionary Force should be kept together as a unit, officered far as possible by Irishmen and composed if possible of country battalions "so that Ireland may gain national credit for their deeds and feel like other communities of the Empire, that she, too, has contributed an army bearing her name in this historic struggle."

Since that manifesto was published recruiting in Ireland north and south has been active, and now the Irish brigade, as outlined by Mr. Redmond, is being formed. It will consist of the 16th division of the New Army composed of twelve purely Irish battalions with headquarters at Mallow, county Cork. Most of its officers, including the commander, will be Irishmen, and Mr. Redmond has agreed to retain the division as the Irish brigade.

Lieutenant General Sir Lawrence Worthing Parsons, a former "gunner" and a King's county man, has been appointed to the command. Sir Lawrence formerly held an Irish command, while he did good service in South Africa, being present at the relief of Ladysmith. Since then he has been inspector general of artillery in India. He was knighted on his retirement two years ago.

Negro Found Dead.

Petersburg, Va., Nov. 9.—Laborers going to work at the British-American tobacco factory early Thursday morning found the mangled body of a negro man apparently about 25 years of age on the Atlantic Coast Line track at a point between Gill and Jones street. Later it was learned that the body was that of Harrison Jolly, son of Robert Jolly, a respected colored citizen of Smoky Ordinary, Brunswick county. The body had been struck apparently be a southbound train and terribly crushed and mangled; for a distance of a hundred feet or more parts of the flesh were left strewn along the track.

Takes His Own Life.

Norfolk, Va.' Nov. 9.—Despondent because of his inability to secure work. William E. Powers' of 607 South Marshall avenue, Brambleton committed suicide in his home Saturday night by firing a bullet into his right temple. His body was found in his bed early this morning and an automatic Colt's revolver was lying near him.

EDITORS IN STREET FIGHT

Editor of Staunton Leader Attacks General Manager Moore, of News

Staunton, Va., Nov. 9.—Incensed over an editorial appearing in the Staunton News Friday morning, Hierome L. Opie, editor of the Staunton Leader, attacked A. T. Moore, general manager of the News, on the street Friday night with the result that Opie was struck between the eyes, and Moore had both his lip cut before bystanders separated them.

Both were summonded to appear in Police Court for fighting on the streets.

The fight was an outcome of the mixed political situation in Staunton the trouble between the two editors being brought to a head by a double column editoral in the News Friday morning attacking the Leader and indulging in bitter personal references. The belligerents belong to different factions of the Democratic party and the encounter has created quite a stir in political circles.

DIFFICULT TO CONVICT

Recent Gambling Case in Suffolk Discussed in Council by Mayor.

Suffolk Va. Nov. 9—The difficulty of fining persons arrested in gambling raids under the present State law was the subject of much discussion in the City Council Thursday night. A recent case was cited and Mayor Holladay relinquished the chair to Dr. H. W. Campbell, president of the council, to state to the council the facts.

In the case, cited which happened about two months ago, a number of young men were arrested in a room in the business section of Suffolk charged with gambling. One of the number paid the fine imposed the others taking an appeal because it was alleged not over $20 had been lost or won, and because no faro bank, A. B. C. tables keno tables or other gambling devices were found in the room the mayor was informed that the case would be nol prossed if carried to the higher courts.

Mayor Holladay stated that he had been repeatedly asked by the man who paid his fine to refund the $11.80 this money having been turned into the city treasury. The council voted to take no action toward refunding it.

Dr. Cambell said:

"Let the law such as it is, take its course. It seems that those statutes were made for the benefit of gamblers and gambling dens."

Mayor Holladay called attention to the difficulty of handling such cases which have come to the attention of the police. While it is known that gambling is now going on, yet under the statutes it cannot be handled.

ANTHRACITE COAL

We strongly urge our customers to take in their winter's supply of fuel early.

Coal mined in the summer and early fall months is generally more carefully prepared and the supply is more certain at this time than it might be later this year.
